Since the saling of the last steamer Panama has been kept in a state of excitement by the report of a revolution being nightly expected. The present government is so unpypular and feeble that, with a force of only three hundred solders, it is in hourly dread of being turned out of power, and it can only keep itself in office by the most stringent measures. Great disappointment has been felt by the residents at Panama that President Mosquera did not visit the Isthmus and see for himself the evils of an administration requiring a standing army to support itself against the expopulation. The steamship Costa Rica, Captain Bradtury, from New York on the 19th inst.
